ALGOL'S ELASTIC CAREER.

Algol brought great distinction to his sire Top Gallant in his two-year-old form and also last year in his four-year-old career. He is a chestnut in color and is a son of Equality, who is a daughter of the great weight carrying racehorse Ben d'Or. Algol was a fine two-year-old and was by many deemed the superior of both Ornament and Typhoon II. In fact he gave them both a sound beating in the Champion Stakes at St. Louis. He was confidently expected to be a great three-year-old, but he turned out to be a very bad one, though he did manage to scratch out two little races. But he was ailing in some way in 1897 and could hardly do anything that a good racehorse is expected to do.

Last year, however, he came out in his true form and amply redeemed the promise of his first year on the turf. In his earlier races he showed electric speed but most of his starts were over short distances and some of his defeats were such as to give him the reputation of being a brilliant weight carrying sprinter only. This reputation gave him the important Wheeler Handicap at Washington Park, he being plainly weighted on the theory that he was such a non-stayer he would have but little chance at any weight. However, when he went into winter quarters there were no doubts about his being able to travel a long route as well as to run very fast.

He made his debut for the year in a five-eighths dash at the Memphis meeting, easily beating H. S. Tobacco and some others sprinters. He carried top weight, 121 pounds. With the same weight he beat Tom Collins, 109; J. A. Gray, 111, and four others, at six furlongs. From Memphis he was taken to New York and started in the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park. He carried 116 pounds and ran unplaced finishing seventh in a field of nine. Then with 126 pounds in the saddle he beat Leedsville and some other indifferent racers over the Eclipse Course in 1:14. In the Toboggan Handicap, over the same course he ran next to last. He carried 121 pounds, the winner, Octagon, having up 125. His career at Morris Park was discouraging so he was brought out to St. Louis. Here, after a rest he came out refreshed and beat the fast horses Enchanter and Gibraltar in a six furlongs dash, done in 1:14. This was done June 8. He carried 112 pounds, Enchanter 109. Five days later with the same weight up he beat Gibraltar, 104. The Elector, 112, and three others at six furlongs in 1:15 and had some trouble in doing it. He was then brought to Chicago for a campaign at Washington Park which opened with defeat but terminated gloriously.

His first three essays at the crack track of the west were defeats but all were fast races and in all he was second. Tuesday, June 28, Ben Hadad, 111, beat him at six furlongs. Time, 1:13. Algol carried 122 pounds. June 30, Hurly Barly, 101, defeated him at the same distance in 1:13, Algol having up 117 pounds. July 2, with 122 in the saddle he ran second to Hindoo-net, 103, again at six furlongs and the time was 1:13. It was his turn July 6, when, with 112 pounds up he beat Traverser, 113, Eugenia Wickes, 102, and four other speedy ones in 1:13.4 quite easily. Satsuma then beat him in a driving finish over the six and one-quarter furlong course Secretary Howard invented last summer, Satsuma 109, Algol 117. Time, 1:17. Abuse and Imp were among those beaten. The very fast filly Hurly Barly then beat him over the same course and made a record, 1:16, in doing it. She carried 103 pound, Algol, 122.

In all his racing up to this point there was little to suggest the winner of a Wheeler Handicap. He was allotted the modest impost of 107 pounds for the big race and even at that figure was deemed to have no more than an outsider's chance, going to the post at 15 to 1. Yet he won and ran a remarkable race in doing so. He took the lead at once and simply ran away from the others, holding the lead at every stage and simply romped home in such marvelous time as 2:04. It looked like there was no limit to his speed or staying power that day. Goodrich, 107, was a far off second and Pink Coat, 109, third. Elusive, 104; Dr. Sheppard, 113; White Frost, 117; Imp, 115; Boanerges, 105; John Bright, 110, and What'er Lou, 109, made up the high class field that he spreadeagled.

Algol was now taken east again. At Sheepsh-head Bay he ran fourth in the Fall Handicap at six furlongs. Miss Miriam, 100, won, Algol's weight 122. In the Ocean Handicap at a mile he was again fourth, Briar Sweet, 110, winning. He carried 119. Then he changed the order of proceedings and won three straight: August 26, with 126 pounds up he won a mile handicap in 1:40.3 beating The Huguenot, 116, and three others; Sept. 3, he captured the Omnium Handicap, 11-18 miles, from The Huguenot, 113, menious speed, don't mind weight and the chances are that he will go the long route even better than he could after midsummer last year. He is in all the important handicaps of the year and from his assignments of weight so far it is evident the official handicappers rate him as the equal of any horse now ready for training. Here is what he has done in racing.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The work at Lexington of demolishing the old Kentucky racetrack began Thursday, when all the portable property was brought to town and stored. Charles Green will be there Monday to make arrangements for the sale. Many trainers are at the track, being unable to move, owing to the bad weather. They say they will stay until forced out by law.

A. H. and D. H. Morris' mares, Holiday and Reckon, have dropped colt foals to Hanover. At J. R. Keene's Castleton Farm there have

J. W. SCHORR & SON'S CH. H. 5, BY TOP GALLANT—EQUALITY.

Bangle, 105, George Keene, 110, Pink Coat, 116, Floronso, 110, and three others. He carried 126 pounds. Time, 1:54.4. Sept. 7, he again won a sweepstakes at a mile and an eighth. He carried 130 pounds over a slow track and defeated White Frost, 113, Lady Marian, 85, and five others in 1:56.4. In the First Special at Brooklyn fourth was the best he could do. Briar Sweet, 102, Candleblack, 105, and Alice Farley, 102, finishing in front of him with his 122 pounds burden. In his next start he ran about the best race of his career. With 126 pounds up he beat Dr. Catlett, 114, Whistling Con, 100, Twinkler, 96, Sir Walter, 113, Buena, 94, and The Friar, 123, for the Oriental Handicap, doing the mile and a quarter easily in 2:07.4. He ran three more races without winning and was retired for the season. He had inspired such respect for his prowess that he could hardly get into a handicap without being asked to carry 130 pounds or more.

Algol is reported to have passed the winter in robust health and the opinion there is that he has improved greatly. If that is so he will be a hard horse to beat this year. He has tre-been eleven foals this season, all of them fillies.

A New Orleans dispatch says that W. C. Daly has announced that negotiations between himself and G. C. Bennett for the services of O'Connor have been broken off.

J. Bahnsen, Cleveland, O.—Charley Reiff won at one mile and seventy yards at St. Louis, Mo., July 9, 1897, with Kitley, 91 pounds up, in 1:47.4. "Hops" Laudeman's Goodrich and Ed Simm's string were shipped from Lexington to Memphis Thursday, where they will go into training.

The more or less important information comes from New York that jockey Hamilton has declared to ride at Chicago this year.

Handbook, Chicago, Ill.—Gnome did not run at Carnegie February 5. A new race was made up without her—not him.

Enquirer, Chicago, Ill.—Bullman not Frawley rode Perseus in the race at Ingleside, February 9.

The little lightweight rider John Slack has been secured by W. C. Daly on a three years' contract.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Commenting on a certain feature of racing at San Francisco, the St. Louis Sporting News says: "A few years ago, when Barney Schreiber was best known as 'the lucky Dutchman,' it looked as though, no matter how worthless a horse appeared to be, if Barney Schreiber bought it, a decided change for the better immediately developed. This was most notably the case with Pop Gray. He was about the best of the western two-year-olds of 1893. Otto Stifel, of this city, bought him and he immediately began to lose. After a dozen races which the youngster ran in the Stifel colors without once winning, Stifel sold him to Schreiber and Pat Dunne for about one-third of his purchase price. Pop Gray immediately began to win again. Such was the case with almost every horse Schreiber bought. Now the reverse is the case. Schreiber has been selling off nearly all his horses of three years old and upward out in San Francisco, and as soon as they race in new colors they begin to win. He sold Imperious to Pat Dunne, and the horse, within two weeks, won four straight purses, or about $1,200. Schreiber got $1,000 for him. Last week he sold Racivan, a horse that could not win for him, and his new owner won him out on his first start, last Friday, when he finished first at 50 and 60 to 1."

To which it might be added that Racivan yesterday showed his heels to such good ones as Ach and Jinks and may be a good racehorse himself. Unluckily for Barney, his trainer could not develop that fact for him, if fact it proves to be.

The San Francisco Chronicle of Monday says: "The past week at Ingleside will long be remembered by the bookmaking fraternity. It was certainly a most disastrous week for the pencilers, and a conservative judge, who is in a position to know whereof he speaks, places their losses at $50,000 for the last three days of the present meeting. The number of well-backed horses that have won is simply phenomenal, and, even where some have not figured, in some unaccountable way, the sharpshooters were down to a man. Any student of form knows that there have been some very marked reversals of form, and it is these sudden changes that make a hole in the honest bookmaker's exchequer. It is said that only one bookmaker is ahead of the present season in California."

Fiddlesticks, by Lexington—Filagree, by Stockwell, died at Mr. August Belmont's stud farm near Lexington, Ky., Wednesday night of old age. Fiddlesticks was a brown, foaled in 1873 and consequently twenty-six years old at the time of his death. He was a fair racehorse but not a topnotcher by any means. His career in the stud brought him no special distinction, though he represented the extreme of high breeding. With his death the story of the sons of Lexington is told, he being the last survivor.

The general impression prevails that no really first class youngster has yet been seen this season. There are a whole lot to be uncorked in the near future, however. The stake events will doubtless bring them all out. At the present time Ella Boland and Golden Rule have, perhaps, shown to the best advantage, but it will be found that neither is invincible before the month is out. There is no Crescendo among the lot.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Ma Angeline was crowded into the fence in the first quarter and was obliged to be pulled almost to a standstill. She was closing fast at the finish. Was the best. Ennomia was hustled along all the way. Clifton B. showed some speed. Voyageur closed strong.

Scratched—(10589) Elsie Bramble, 102. Xalissa, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Ennomia, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Ma Angeline, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Little Fellow—Lizzie McC. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. Governor Boyd made a show of his field. The going just suited him. Troxler never made a move with Monk Wayman until the race was practically over. Red quit when the pinch came. Annie Teuton and La Salle both showed early speed. Weenatchie is getting into form.

Scratched—(10635) Pete Kitchen, 94; 10635 Joe Shelby, 112. Governor Boyd, place, 7 to 10. Monk Wayman, place, 1 to 2. Red, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—Br. h. by Pirate of Penzance—Lillie B. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. J. H. C. had a lot of speed and was never in trouble. Star of Bethlehem, too, seems to have found some of his speed that he did not have Thursday. Lamley was not strong enough to make Joe Shelby do his best. The latter should be closely tabbed. Banquo II. was not on good terms with the track. Friar John ran a good race.

Winner—B. c. by Volante—Mamie Fonso. Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first five were driving. Volandies got up in the last sixteenth. He was doing his best at the end. Water Crest was coming fast on the outside path. Very Light lost ground on the stretch turn. Treopia was short. Moroni had poor racing luck and David poorer. The latter was running great guns at the finish. Watch him. Prince Harry ran below the mark.

Overweights—Nellie O'Neill, 2 pounds. Volandies, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Water Crest, place, 7 to 10. Treopia, show, 6 to 1. Prince Harry, place, 9 to 10.

Time, 27 1/2, 53 1/2, 1:21 1/2, 1:50.

Winner—B. g. by Tom Sawyer—Sallie. Post 3 minutes. Start fair. It was a driving finish. L. T. Caton had all the speed but was doing his best the last sixteenth to stall off Simon D. The latter would have won in a few more strides. Agitator got the worst of start and closed a big gap. He then naturally tired in the stretch. Apple Jack had some speed but not near enough for him. Throw his race out.

Overweights—Alva, 2 pounds. L. T. Caton, place, 10 to 1; show, 5 to 1. Simon D., place, 7 to 10. Possum, show, 5 to 1. Apple Jack, place, evens. Agitator, place, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Bassettlaw—Sardine.

Start good. Won in a gallop; next two driving. Sardine is a good filly. She outclassed the party, and was sauntering at the end. Winyah ran a fair race. Will be a stayer. Outgamed Mountbank at end. The latter had no excuses. He may stay. Was lucky. Bona bolted on the turn. Has a lot of speed. Tab for future. Nina was ridden to defeat. Steel Diamond has been well tried, but is hardly bridlewise in a field. Rose of Hilo is even greener.
